Growing up we were teammates, today we are colleagues. Life sometimes works in mysterious ways, but I cannot be more grateful that it put us back together after many years. I used to assist Nikola under the rim, and today he executes last second buzzer beating content for me, and many projects we undertake together.

He is hands down the hardest working individual I have had the pleasure of working with, fully open to input, and most importantly I get to see him grow from a talented and passionate designer, to a true artist. Here's to thousands more projects ahead of us!

Shakir

Creative Director,
Founder of Jersey Nation

Nikola "VN Design" is one of the greatest graphic designers on the market right now with countless skills to offer, his desire to work and find a way to get the job done despite any setbacks doesn't go unnoticed. Nikola clearly values communication, productivity and quality of work as there has never been a time where he has not met a deadline.

Nikola also known as VN Design has helped grow my company to new heights with his amazing skillset. Not to mention, he is an extremely genuine and understanding person. His ability to multi-task and problem solve are more skills that he highly values & can bring to the table.

If you're looking for extremely high quality & fast work, great communication skills and an all-around great person then Nikola Vukotic "VN Design" is the guy for that job.
